The 4th March 2024

This is an application under Section 498 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for bail.

In this case under Sections 143/449/302/34 of the Penal Code, 1860 it has been alleged that other co-accuseds fired gun the petitioner and shots indiscriminately causing murder of victim Proshanto Chakma.

On consideration of above materials on record we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner at this point of time but we feel it necessary to pass a direction upon the Trial Court below for conclusion of the trial of the case expeditiously.

Accordingly, we are directing the learned Session Judge, Rangamati to conclude the trial of the case within 4(four) months from the date of receipt of this order without allowing any adjournment beyond 15(fifteen) days.

The days covered by the adjournment at the instance of the accused be excluded from above period.

But if the learned Judge fails to conclude the trial within above period he will have to explain in writing to this Court through the Registrar General, Supreme Court of Bangladesh as to why the trial could not be concluded.

The learned Judge shall also consider the petition for bail if any filed by the petitioner with sympathy and in accordance with law.

The Superintendent of Police, Rangmati is directed to ensure that the prosecution witnesses are produced before the Trial Court on the date to be fixed by the Court without any fail.

Let copies of this order be sent to the Registrar General, Supreme Court of Bangladesh, learned Session Judge, Rangamati and Superintendent of Police, Rangamati at once.

With above direction this Rule is disposed of.

Let a copy of this order be transmitted to the Court concerned at once.
